Golden opportunity at Westside Place

The Gold Release is the final stage within The Ritz-Carlton precinct offering residences up to level 70 and featuring expansive views across Port Phillip Bay, Melbourne's city skyline and beyond. The Gold Release represents sophistication, elegance, value, quality and status. Everything that is synonymous with West Side Place and The Ritz-Carlton.

Available is a level 51 – one bed + study that is for sale via nomination.

Note, stamp duty savings are still available for eligible local PPR buyers as the contract is dated 2018. All residences are designed to maximise natural light and completed with high-end quality fit-outs.

Estimated completion for building D is 2022.

All residents will have access to residential amenities, including pool with steam room and sauna, gymnasium, yoga/pilates area, cinema, virtual golf, private dining rooms, wine tasting/cellar, residential lounge, meeting room and garden terrace with BBQ facilities.

Additional amenities are also accessible exclusively to those living in the Sky Residences such as chef's room and private dining area, executive club lounge with library reading room, cocktail and residents' lounge.

It is the most enviable of addresses to be a part of.
